By its sheer dazzling wit, gorgeous word play and poignant insight, Swatches ... provides the sort of heartfelt vision quite absent from the bulk of today's poetry: a sophisticated almost epistolary sense of intimacy shared from his innermost being; a private history that unfolds against the backdrop of New York City and its public events. Here are love and loss, friendship, memory, aspiration and the tasks of living conveyed in terms that evoke the larger urban setting and that prove the city to be nothing less than the reflection and echoes of our own inner selves and struggle.
